ThermoMixer / ThermoStat Service

Temperature Control & Mixing Performance Plans

The right heating, cooling and mixing conditions are made very easy with our Temperature Control and Mixing instruments. We also understand that slight deviations in temperature and mixing frequency of your samples can affect their reaction conditions and may lead to non-reproducible results.

To guarantee you the precise function of the instrument we offer manufacturer designed maintenance services.

With our Performance Plans options we will make sure that your instruments are in good working condition with a professional maintenance and certification service.
